Chania – Lakkoï : Quickly we leave behind us the urban landscape and as we reach “Lakkoï” village the view becomes more wild.

Lakkoï – Kallergis Refuge : We offer you an off road adventure which requires demanding driving and a chance to try our jeeps power! Adrenaline rises. On “Poria” we have a short break to rest for a while.

Kallergis Refuge: We are now at an altitude of 1680m (5500ft). The view of the surrounding peaks and the seas of both North (Aegean sea) and South Crete (Libyan sea), is breathtaking.

Xiloskalo: After an off road route we will be at the entrance point of one of the longest ravines in Europe, the Samaria gorge, at 1200m (3900ft) altitude. It is time for some commemorative photos, using the beauty of “Lefka Ori” as background.

Cretan Villages: Continue driving North , the beauty of nature changes in every turn. More tree groves, small rivers and more green colour in general around us. Picturesque villages make our Safari route memorable.

Therisso: Lunch time! Taste Greek cuisine, wine and hospitality in a picturesque village, a turning point in the local history. The Cretan revolution started right here, in 1905!
