

Food & Wine walking tour

Please read carefully the procedures, Terms and Conditions before making your booking.

Here's your chance to see what everyday life in Chania, Greece is truly like. During this 5 hours walking tour you will navigate narrow streets and rub elbows with the locals as you pop into a few authentic spots in Old Town.

Your tour escort will take you and your small group in places where you can converse with town folk and sample traditional delicacies such as “koulouri”, “kalitsounia”, “loukoumades”, “graviera”, “mizithra”, “ntakos”, “olives”, “alatsolies”, “tsakistes”, “tsikoudia”, fresh tomatoes and local Cretan honey. You will also participate in a delicious wine tasting as you learn first-hand the traditions and customs of this beautiful country.

Your walking tour will allow you to view up close and personal this scenic port where old buildings, museums, churches and shops are all built close to the panoramic harbor. Throughout the tour you will have the opportunity to see a variety of sites as well as notable Jewish, Christian, Turkish, Greek and Venetian monuments. Not to be missed is the view from Profitis Ilias hill, that provides a sweeping view of the city of Chania.

You will begin to get a sense of Italy, maybe Venice or Florence, in the mesmerizing atmosphere of conditions that mix both character and culture of the Cretan people and their traditions. Accompanied by your local, friendly and knowledgeable escort, this tour will open your eyes to so much more than the average excursion as you will be provided with a glimpse into a culture's long, rich history.

This is by far not your typical historical tour, sign up now and be a part of discovering what Greece is all about on this intimate introduction to the people and lifestyle of Chania.
